

Genres

During the year, children will be given the opportunity to read and write a variety of genres that link to new skills that they will learn.

Reading

Children may cover the following genres:

| | |
|---------------------|---|
| EYFS | Song lyrics Myths and legends Traditional tales/fairytales Stories from other cultures/traditions/diverse characters (at least twice) Poetry (at least twice) Narrative extract (at least twice) Short stories Information text |
| Year 1 and 2 | Leaflets Scripts Song lyrics Myths and legends Traditional tales/fairytales Stories from other cultures/traditions/diverse characters (at least twice) Letters/diary entries Poetry (at least twice) Narrative extract (at least twice) Short stories Information text Explanation text Instructions Newspaper report |
| Year 3 and 4 | Leaflets Scripts Song lyrics Myths and legends Traditional tales/fairy tales Stories from other cultures/traditions/diverse characters (at least twice) Letters/diary entries Poetry (at least twice) Narrative extract (at least twice) Short stories Information text Explanation text Instructions Newspaper report |

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Year 5 and 6 | Leaflets Scripts Song lyrics Myths and legends Traditional tales/fairytales Stories from other cultures/traditions/diverse characters (at least twice) Letters/diary entries Poetry (at least twice) Narrative extract (at least twice) Short stories Information text Explanation text Instructions Newspaper report Magazine article |
|-------------------------|--|

Writing

The children will apply their skills in a range of genres throughout the year. This may include some of the genres above and will include one piece of non-fiction writing a term and poetry at least once a year.