

Being Safe

Topic overview - This will be a stand-alone week where we will cover the points below from the PSHE curriculum.

PSHE skills

Being Safe:

- what sorts of boundaries are appropriate in friendships with peers and others (including in a digital context)
- about the concept of privacy and the implications of it for both children and adults; including that it is not always right to keep secrets if they relate to being safe
- that each person's body belongs to them, and the differences between appropriate and inappropriate or unsafe physical, and other, contact
- how to respond safely and appropriately to adults they may encounter (in all contexts, including online) whom they do not know
- how to recognise and report feelings of being unsafe or feeling bad about any adult
- how to ask for advice or help for themselves or others, and to keep trying until they are heard,
- how to report concerns or abuse, and the vocabulary and confidence needed to do so
- where to get advice from e.g. family, school and/or other sources

Vocabulary:

- boundaries
- privacy
- appropriate/inappropriate
- concerns
- abuse
